Open up the above link click on USA and fill in User ID and Password to see data.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the ALS Global website. The address bar shows the URL: <https://www.alsglobal.com/en/myals/webtrieve/environmental>. The page title is "Environmental results: ALS". The main content area is titled "Americas" and includes the text "Client login portals for USA, Canada & South America." Below this, there are four buttons: "USA", "Canada environmental", "South America", and "Canada agriculture". To the right, there is a sidebar with a "Have a question? Need a quote?" section containing a "Contact" button and social media icons. Below that is a "Related information" section with links to "Locations", "News", "Events", "Downloads", "Training", and "Email signup", each with a corresponding count. The bottom of the page shows a Windows taskbar with the search bar and system clock.
